

Inclusivity & Respect Policy

Our 'No DICKHEADS' approach

- Cheers Queers is dedicated to fostering an inclusive and welcoming environment for all attendees, regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, age, ability, or any other characteristic.
- Discrimination, bullying, harassment, or any form of disrespectful behaviour towards fellow attendees, event staff, or speakers will not be tolerated.
- We encourage open dialogue, constructive discussions, and the exchange of diverse perspectives while maintaining a respectful atmosphere.
- Any individual found engaging in discriminatory behaviour, bullying, harassment, or any actions that disrupt the event's inclusive environment will be subject to immediate removal from the event premises without a refund.
- Attendees are encouraged to report any incidents of discrimination, bullying, or harassment to event staff or organisers promptly. All reports will be treated with confidentiality and seriousness, and appropriate action will be taken.
- The organisers reserve the right to update or modify this policy as necessary to ensure the safety and comfort of all participants.

By attending this event, you agree to adhere to and uphold this policy of inclusivity and respect for all attendees.
